

5

Five Professional OneWater Solutions with WhiteWater, Inc.

Effective water management begins with thorough planning which will set the foundation for success. By partnering with a professional water service provider, you can reduce your overall costs while improving safety and productivity. This allows you to concentrate on your core business operations while a trusted business partner manages all your water requirements.

1

Serving a range of markets and applications

Markets

Commercial, Industrial, Institutional, Mixed-Use, Multi-Dwelling, Municipal Developments, Recreation and more

Applications

Potable Water, Wastewater and Storm Water

2

Many services to meet your needs – 24/7/365

System Operations & Maintenance

Licensed Operators, Management Services, Treatment Plant Operation and Maintenance, Water Sampling, Contract Operations and Maintenance, Chemical Treatment Systems, Compliance Management and Resolution and Wastewater Operations.

Mechanical Maintenance

Pump Station Maintenance, Pump Replacement, Rebuilt Pump Service, Corrosion Control, Controls Service, Electrical Service, Preventive and Predictive Maintenance.

System Support

Cross Connection Surveys, Backflow Device Testing, SOP Manuals, Preventive Maintenance Schedules, Hydrant Flushing, Valve Exercising, System Maintenance.

3

The experience and expertise to exceed expectations

Experience

Nearly 40 years of experience owning and operating water and wastewater systems in the Northeast – bringing systems into compliance and keeping them there.

Expertise

Plant operators, sampling specialists, mechanics, planners and computer specialists that stay on top of new water and wastewater regulations.

Peace of Mind

Around the clock support providing careful management, monitoring and maintenance that safeguards public health and meets strict regulatory compliance.

4

Automated systems that prevent problems before they occur

Early Diagnosis and Scheduling

Comprehensive computerized maintenance systems (CCMS) offer proper scheduling of maintenance and prompt diagnosis of potential problems.

Archiving

The CCMS archives a complete record of your facility's maintenance history for auditing, certification and inspection purposes.

5

Safety is part of our DNA

Zero-Incident Culture

We'll help you identify and mitigate risks within the facility and we will always operate under a Safety 24/7 philosophy while on site.

Training & Certifications

Our operators, maintenance and service technicians are licensed and trained in CPR/First Aid, Confined Space Entry, NFPA 70 Arc Flash, Lock Out/Tag Out procedures, Hazard Communications and Fall Protection among other things.

Have a project you would like to discuss?
www.whitewateronline.com/contact